5. BOOK YOUR ONE ON ONE CALL AFTER SKIMMING THROUGH YOUR PROFILE

<https://calendly.com/dianadentinger/one-on-one-call>

Every person is different. Some of my clients prefer to skim through their profile to get an idea of the content, others prefer to read it thoroughly and then book their call. Either way, the calls are recorded and are valuable resource afterwards.

WHAT IS YOUR LEARNING STYLE?

Simple suggestions to get the most from this process. Find what works best for you.

- IF YOU ARE A QUICK ACTION TAKER

You might feel the most productive binge reading about all your Personality Needs in your readout in a full morning, filling out reflections in a spontaneous way. If this is you (since it is me too), then do the first “draft” of remembering yourself in your greater potential in one sitting (about 3 hours). Then focus on one Facet of your Personality for 2 days each (for a total of 24 days). Begin the day by reading the Personality Need description in the Profile and notice how you express yourself. Take notes or jot down your reflections. I will caution you though to not be speedy to just to get the journey over sooner. The Profile is an Instruction Manual to use for a lifetime. Becoming a better version of yourself (in the prefrontal cortex) requires some time for your brain to default to rewiring to your greatest potential.

- IF YOU ARE A SAVOUR EACH STEP LEARNER

You might feel that you make more progress by reading the Personality Needs over a longer period than the suggested 21 Day Challenge. So you might prefer taking the journey of self discovery in a slower way to dive deep into each of yourself. And to reflect on where you are now in your life and where you want to be. I will caution you though, some clients do this and then life gets in the way so they only finish a few of their first Personality Needs and their inertia ends. Commit to this journey wholeheartedly and keep the energy flowing by setting aside a specific time to reading your Personality Profile so you keep up the momentum and actually complete the whole process in a month.

- IF YOU ARE A SUPER ENTHUSIAST BUT PROCRASTINATE

You might best complete the process by having an accountability partner so please consider having someone close to you, a family member or friend, to go through the process together. If they also get their Personality & Needs Profile® Readout then you can both schedule time to talk about what you are learning about yourself. You can read out loud your Personality Needs, one every few days over a 4 week period and have a meeting together once a week. I will caution you: DO NOT coach the other person nor have them coach you. Share what you are learning about yourself. It takes lots of training to guide a person correctly with this Methodology.

ABOUT DIANA DENTINGER & HOW TO STAY INSPIRED

I LOVE HELPING PEOPLE BEING BE THEIR BEST!

Starting out in 1985 as an Entrepreneur with service based business in Germany and then becoming a Corporate Team Building Trainer in Italy, I have studied, researched and created a solid Coaching Methodology so you get fast, fun and highly effective results. These can support you on any Personal & Professional Development journey for practical life decisions as well as spiritual evolution.

Over the years I have seen an increase in burnout with people doing anything to get the role, title or money; an increase in people disengaged in life just going through the motions of their job (and in their relationships too) without feeling that what they do really matters; and finally an increase in low energy and vitality (maybe we could call it “undiagnosed” depression, dopamine addiction, etc).

Back in 2004, I became a BioPsychology therapist specialised in unblocking Psychosomatic illnesses, adding this rigorous specialisation to the vast array of certifications in behaviour assessments and wellbeing protocols.

Reverse engineering the BioPsychology of “why people get ill” I created the Personality & Needs Profile® and Your Life Your Way Coaching Methodology™ for which I was awarded Top 100 Women Achievers in 2018.

What I know for sure is that, inside, you want something to shift, you want to be a better person and you want to find new & more fulfilling ways of doing things that give you joy, self love, financial stability, success, energy and meaning! That’s why I offer these quick win processes so you get a nudge in the right direction and so you reconnect to the real you inside making easier to adapt and evolve.

Born in Chicago, IL, USA, I grew up in the midwest in a huge family of over 250 relatives & have been living in Europe since 1984 raising my 4 children in northern Italy. Since they are grown and independent I have more time to support you living a happier, even healthier, more meaningful and fulfilling life. Visit the links below.
